PGA Tester Tues 2018

INTERVIEWER: Alright, so Tom what made you want to move to Ponte Vedra Beach and work for the PGA Tour?	00:00:00
TOM: Well I worked for the PGA in New York for three years, and I loved everything about it. I'm a complete golf geek. Prior to that I'd worked for major league baseball for three years. Working on a show called, 'This week in Baseball' and that was a great job. I love baseball and, but nobody ever left that job and so there was this opportunity to basically produce the exact same kind of show called, Inside the PGA Tour'. And so I jumped at that opportunity and did that in New York for three years. And then the Tour decided that they wanted to bring their in-house production company, down here. And so I went through the interview process again and decided to make the move.	00:00:07
INTERVIEWER: What do you love most about living here in the Palm Beach area?	00:00:44
TOM: Well, I love everything about it. I am from New York and my family is still, kind of, connected there in the northeast. But I love coming down here. I don't go in the ocean swimming, but I run on the ocean almost everyday and I still get a kick out of	00:00:48
